RUSSIA PROMISES TO MAINTAIN PEACE

Confused League Council

in East.

By The Associated Press.

At Mukden, Japanese military authorities Friday again declared Chinese were massing in menacing numbers in the Manchurian area.

Air observations have shown 35,000
to 40,000 Chinese regulars in the district, it was said at army headquarters.

A firm stand against foreign supervision in the proposed zone was taken by the Tokyo government.

A foreign office spokesman said
Japan would not accept "any third party intervention" in the Manchurian area.

The League of Nations turned yesterday to the diplomatic representatives of the United States, Great Britain and France in Tokyo for help in clearing up Japan's attitude toward the establishment of a neutral zone in Manchuria.

The League council's drafting committee drew up two questions which were dispatched to Tokyo. These questions covered the second of the operations Japan wishes to carry out against Manchurian bandits, and the location and extent of the proposed neutral zone.

JAPANESE COMMUNIQUE DRAW PICTURE OF PERIL

MUKDEN, Manchuria, Dec. 4.—(AP) Japanese communiques again are drawing a picture of a Chinese military menace to Mukden. It is similar to that sketched just before last week's thrust, which was halted half way to Chinchow.

A headquarters spokesman who for the past three days has reported several instances of Chinese reinforcements around Chinchow, said movements in the direction of Mukden today, exhibited a map based on observations by aviators showing the disposition of what he said were 35,000 to 40,000 Chinese regulars.

The lines extended in a long quarter moon from Chinchow through Tahushan along the Tahushan-Tung-liao railway, including Fakuem, 50 miles northwest of Mukden, thus tending to envelop Mukden.

He said a great part of these forces had been brought north of the great wall recently, and that Chang Tso-hsiang, the former Kirin war lord, had reached Chinchow on November 29, becoming the Chinese commander. He said these alleged reinforcements did not yet constitute a menace requiring the Japanese army to take positive measures.

Referring to statements by travelers that such Chinese strength is not visible from the railway, the spokesman asserted that most of the troops are billeted in villages well off the ordinary travel routes.

One Chinese detachment, he said,

Pioneer Citizen Dies.

COLONEL W. M. CAMP.

COL. W. M. CAMP, PIONEER, IS DEAD

Rites Today for Colorful Figure in City's Busi- ness, Social Life.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon for Colonel William M.
Camp, pioneer citizen of Atlanta, who died Friday morning at his home, 190
The Prado, after an illness of several weeks.

Rites will be conducted at 3:30 o'clock at the North Avenue Presbyterian church, with the Rev. Dr. Richard Orme Flinn officiating, and interment will be in Oakland cemetery.

One of the most picturesque and distinguished citizens of Atlanta, Colonel Camp exercised an enthusiastic activity in business, social and civil affairs of Atlanta until within a few weeks of his death. He was commander of the historic Old Guard of the city, a director of the First National bank, a member of the Presidents' Club, and, until a year ago,
was a member of the Rotary Club.

For 14 years Colonel Camp was one of the best known railroad executives in the southeast, having served as superintendent of the southeastern division of the Pullman company for that time. He retired last year from active duty, but constantly kept in touch with the many friends he had made in railway circles during the 40 years he was in that field.

Colonel Camp was born in Atlanta
August 24, 1850. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Camp, were among the earliest settlers in this section, and he always made his home here, evidencing a glowing pride in the city of his birth and taking active interest in almost every phase of its development.

Among other distinctions he enjoyed was that of being named colonel on the fast-fading numbers of a unique organization known as the Pioneer Schoolboys of Atlanta. The late Dr. Sam W. Small also was a member of this organization.

Colonel Camp received his education in Atlanta public schools. At an early age he entered the grocery business, operating as Camp & Son, the name of which firm appears in the first telephone directory ever used in Atlanta.

At the age of 26 Colonel Camp entered the service of the Georgia railroad.

DEMOCRATS OPEN CAMPAIGN TO SEAT BANKHEAD, BAILEY

Republicans Split in Row Over Re-election of Moses Threatens Harmony as Opening Day
Nears.

BY GLADSTONE WILLIAMS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Efforts of senate republicans to raise a political hullabaloo over the Heflin-Bankhead contest in Alabama by demanding of Senator John H. Bankhead that he stand aside until his case is considered will be defeated by an avalanche of democratic and progressive votes if the question is raised at the opening session Monday, it was made apparent here today.

Democratic senators, feeling that no justification exists for the move to deny the Alabama member the oath of office, are prepared to put up a solid front in his support. They will be joined by a sufficient number of progressive republicans to completely swamp the opposition and perhaps kill for all time any lingering hope of the redoubtable Tom Heflin that he may unseat his successful opponent in the 1930 Alabama senatorial election.

During the caucus of senate democrats Senator Walter F. George, of Georgia, a member of the Hastings subcommittee, gave a detailed explanation of the Heflin-Bankhead investigation. In the end an informal agreement was made to oppose vigorously any move to deny Bankhead his right to take the oath of office.

The same feeling and determination exists among democrats in the case of Senator Joseph W. Bailey, of North Carolina, whose seat is being contested by former Representative George M. Pritchard, his republican opponent of a year ago.

Bailey's Case Dropped.
In the North Carolina senator's case, however, it has already been made clear that republicans have abandoned any plans to demand
his credentials. Senator James E.
Watson, of Indiana, the republican leader, announced again after the party caucus of today that no move is now contemplated against Senator Bailey.

The Heflin-Bankhead and Pritchard-Bailey contests were the subject of discussion at the caucus of the democratic caucus. While the republicans reached no formal agreement to make a concerted demand for Senator Bankhead to stand aside several individual members of the party are known to be determined to initiate such a move.
These include Senator Arthur Robinson, of Indiana, and Senator Hiram Bingham, of Connecticut.

Randles G. O. P.
Democratic success a few years back in forcing two republican senators, Pritchard, of Pennsylvania, and Smith, of Illinois, to stand aside when they presented themselves for admission is a matter that still rankles the republican benches. It is the first opportunity they have had to square the deal.

Senator Daniel O. Hastings, of Delaware, chairman of the sub-committee which has been looking into the Alabama contest, has decided to refer the case to the full committee.

Clara Admits Marriage Denied by Film Cowboy

REX BELL AND CLARA BOW.

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Dec. 4.—(AP)
Clara Bow, after months of seclusion in the desert, came back to her public today, presumably in the dress of a bride. But Rex Bell, whom two witnesses said they saw her wed last night, denied he had become her husband.

A situation typically reminiscent of the turbulent career of Clara Bow was brought into public relief with the unexpected disclosure by the witnesses that the couple had appeared last night, obtained a marriage license and were wed secretly by District Judge William E. Orr.

To questioners, the cowboy-actor denied he and Miss Bow had married. He intimated that to do so would endanger certain contracts. An inquiry brought a statement from Frank Dunlap, Miss Bow's agent in Hollywood, that he knew of no contract.

Federal Control Is Essential To Curb Holding Companies, Says Howell, of Nebraska

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Declaring that the holding company is "absolutely unnecessary to properly conduct any form of business," Senator Robert B. Howell, of Nebraska, has definitely aligned himself with those who are seeking to devise some legislative means of curtailing overcapita-lization and refinancing schemes of the larger corporate interests.

Senator Howell, one of the progressive republican group of the upper chamber, received practical training on the subject of utility organizations
while serving as manager of the city waterworks of Omaha, his home city.
Particularly since the market crash of 1929 he has made a deep study of the whole field of holding company operations and is convinced that the need exists for some legislative action.

"Let me cite you a specific example," said Senator Howell. "The Nebraska Power Company is owned by the American Power & Light Co. of Ohio, a subsidiary of the Electric Bond & Share Co., a holding company. Nine hundred and sixty thousand common shares out of 1,000,000 shares of the Nebraska company is owned by the American Power & Light Co. The investment of the American Power & Light Co. in the Nebraska company is $766,336. This figure was determined by the federal trade commission. Now the dividends on this investment have been as follows: In 1924, 48 per cent; 1925, 48 per cent; 1926, 60 per cent; 1927, 97 per cent, and 1928, 96 per cent. After deducting fixed charges and depreciation the profit of the American Power & Light Co. on its investment for 1929 was $1,930,925, or 177 per cent.

If the American Power & Light Co.
would have been satisfied with 20 per cent profit instead of taking 212 per cent profit last year, how much could the Nebraska Power Company have reduced its charges to the state consumers? The answer is that more than $26 per consumer per year would be saved.

"I don't know how any corporation can justify such profits from a community whose prosperity is now based upon 30-cent wheat, and similar prices for other grain and agricultural products. I can't see how legislation can effectively regulate these fellows. Their attitude toward the public is 'What are you going to do about it?' They don't say, 'The public be damned,' but their present attitude amounts to the same thing."

Senator Howell said that it took him some 16 years to convince the people of Nebraska that he was right on the holding company "racket" but that today water, ice and electric light are far cheaper in Omaha than it was before he started his fight.

VINSON TO OFFER BILL ABOLISHING U. S. FARM BOARD

Georgian Completes Draft of Measure for Introduction in House
at Approaching Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Representative Carl Vinson, of Georgia, announced today that upon the convening of congress Monday he will lay before the house a bill to repeal the measure, the draft of which he believes the federal farm board.

Similar measures are being prepared for introduction by a large contingent in both the house and senate.
A second Georgia member, Representative Charles R. Crisp, is also expected to ask for the board's repeal.

In announcing his plans to sponsor the measure, the draft of which he believes the federal farm board, Vinson declared he was unable to find where the board had been "of any benefit whatsoever to the farmers; that on the contrary its activities had continued to bring about the deplorable condition that agriculture is now in.

Recent hearings, the Georgia member asserted, had disclosed the following activities of the board:

"That it had sustained enormous losses; that its failure to assure the trade that the 1,300,000 bales of cotton held would not be dumped on the market has been a weight on the market during the whole cotton season,
thereby depressing the price; that the only plan to offer was a reduction in
acreage."

"That not a single effort had been made by the board to create a greater consumption of cotton or to find new markets for the use of cotton; that the agricultural department and all the state colleges throughout the country are teaching the farmers to increase their production; that the market has been a weight on the market during the whole cotton season,
thereby depressing the price; that the
only plan to offer was a reduction in
acreage."

warrant then outstanding.

According to an underwriting agreement, Electric Bond and Share subscribed for such remaining shares as were not taken by others entitled to

Acquitted

SANTA MONICA, Cal., Dec. 4.— (AP)—Cornelius Van Ness Leavitt,
brother-in-law of President Herbert Hoover, was acquitted of a liquor possession charge today by Judge J.
C. A. M. Spencer.

After hearing Leavitt's explanation of his arrest on November 9, while carrying a sack containing 10 pints to liquor out the back door of C. R.
Dailey's grocery store, Judge Spencer
said:

"I don't think there is a person in the courtroom who would hold Leavitt guilty. He did exactly as any of us would have done under the circumstances. Therefore, I order the acquittal of Leavitt."

The verdict was received with applause by the crowded courtroom.

Leavitt, a retired plumber, testified he did not know what the sack contained. It had been thrust into his hands by Dailey with a request to "throw it away," he said.

The defendant related that he found Dailey and two other men taking a drink of whisky in the rear of the building. He accepted a drink proffered him, he said.

In a few moments, he said, Dailey saw a policeman, coming in the front door. Dailey then quickly handed him the gunny sack. As Leavitt emerged from the back door he walked into the arms of Earl Wolman, a federal prohibition agent. Another federal agent, A. B. Sheets, was present.
"I didn't know what was in that sack because I never opened it," Leavitt testified.

The testimony of the officers as to the actual arrest coincided with that of Leavitt.

Dailey will be tried later on a liquor possession charge.

LOUISIANA COMMISSION OVERRULED BY JUDGE
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 4.—(UP)—Three federal judges, sitting jointly, late today ruled that the Louisiana public service commission had ceased to function, and granted the Missouri Pacific railroad a permanent injunction restraining the commission from interfering with the discontinuance of trains between Eudora, Ark., and Delhi, La.

Attorneys for the railroad testified they had vainly sought to get a hearing from the commission.

The injunction was rendered by Circuit Judges Samuel Sibley and Richard Walker and District Judge Fred Borah.

Doctor Predicts Return Of Feminine Contours
PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 4.—(AP)—Women may again become both plump and fashionable, according to Dr. Alexius M. Forster, of Colorado Springs.

He told the annual convention of the Medical and Surgical Association of the Southwest yesterday that "plumpness in women always has attracted men."

"Any attempt to interfere with nature's normal arrangements are doomed to failure. Consequently the sooner women are willing to permit nature to follow its normal course, the sooner they will benefit from their intelligent acquiescence."

DIFFERENCES DISRUPT HOOVER'S HOME MEET
Clash of Opinions Threatens Harmony of Conference on Ownership.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—(AP)—A clash of opinions over methods of financing home construction injected a note of discord today into President Hoover's conference on home building and ownership.

Representatives of building and loan associations threw the meeting of the finance committee into an uproar with an attack on the committee's recommendation for development of second mortgage financing at lower interest rates.

This committee was regarded as the key group of the conference, which closes tomorrow following presentation of the last of 31 committee reports on how American homes might be improved and brought within reach of those of moderate means.

William E. Best, president of the United Building & Loan Associations, shouted his opposition to second mortgages in home financing. He said these associations now are providing the type of financing contemplated by

Payment of Private Debts Favored by Adolph Hitler

Fascist Leader Says Germany Would Collapse If Political Obligations Given Priority.

BY LOUIS P. LOCHNER.
BERLIN, Dec. 4.—(AP)—If and when Adolf Hitler, the fascist, assumes power in Germany, American bondholders need not fear for their holdings, he told the Associated Press today, unless "France's thesis" on reparations is accepted by the world powers.

In his first interview in months with the foreign press, the militant leader of the fatherland's legions of fascists said:

"If the world acknowledges that political debts take priority over commercial debts—in other words, if France's thesis is accepted—then Germany is bound to collapse economically and there obviously will be nothing from which to meet commercial obligations."

"To pay two and a half billion marks reparations besides two and a half billions interest on debts would necessitate exporting fifty to sixty billion marks worth of goods. That would spell economic chaos, not only for Germany, but likewise for foreign countries."

"Assuming commercial debts are given priority over political debts,"

the correspondent asked, "are we to assume that you favor payment of these commercial debts in the event of your seizing power?"

Driving home every syllable with a forceful gesture, he replied, "That is self-evident. There is no doubt about it. But I do decline to assume for 60 years the obligation to pay political debts for which we cannot be made responsible."

"The whole world ought to realize industrial dumping leads to disaster, not only for us but for the whole world. We of the movement I represent have foretold what would happen if the Young plan were adopted. We trust the whole world will soon realize we were right."

"Pressed to state concretely how he would approach the reparations problem on coming into power, he said: 'First and foremost we would let the whole world know the absolute and undiluted truth about Germany's situation. Those responsible for 1918 (presumably the German revolution) simply cannot give an unvarnished picture because every word would constitute an accusation against themselves.'

"Nobody abroad at present knows Germany's real condition. The study commissions who came here do not know it, for they saw fashionable West Side Berlin and that's all."

Hitler's attitude throughout the interview was that of a man cocksure of coming into his own.

The names of Governor Roosevelt and Mayor Key have been linked as a possible team for the construction of the bridge, which is a project of the Georgia and Florida legislatures.

The project is a subject of discussion at the conference Sunday, which will be held at the governor's residence.

GEORGIA SOLONS SEEK MAJOR HOUSE POSTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Committee assignments of members of the Georgia delegation in the new congress opening Monday were discussed in a caucus held by the state group at the capital today.

After the caucus, Representative Charles R. Crisp, of Americus, dean of the delegation and one of the democratic leaders of the house, stated that he had no formal assignment, but revealed that several new and more important posts would be sought by individual members of the group.

Representative W. C. Lanford, of the present eleventh district, will be supported by the delegation for a place on the rivers and harbors committee.

In order to get the assignment, however, Mr. Lanford will have to give up the chairmanship of either the committee on irrigation and reclamation or the territories committee, both of which he is now chairing.

Representative Wood, new member from the ninth Georgia district, has not yet arrived in the capital and for that reason his committee preference was not discussed at today's caucus.

He is expected in time to participate in the general democratic caucus tomorrow, however.

Other committee changes to be sought by members of the Georgia group include a transfer of Representative E. E. Cox, of Camilla, from flood control to the committee on interstate and foreign commerce, one of the major legislative bodies.

It was indicated also that Representative Malcolm Tarver, of the seventh district, will seek to go to the judiciary committee, giving up in return places he now holds on several minor committees.

Representative Robert Ramspeck, of the Atlanta district, it was indicated, will be content to hold his assignments on the civil service, labor and claims committees.

So far as known, no other changes are contemplated by members of the delegation, which already commands some of the most important assignments in the house committee structure.

Representative Crisp will be the second highest democrat on the all-powerful ways and means committee.

Representative Carl Vinson, of Milledgeville, will be chairman of the naval affairs body; Representative W. W. Latham, of Dalton, will continue on the agricultural committee; Representative W. C. Wright, of Newnan, on appropriations; Representative Charles B. Athens, of Athens, remaining on banking and currency; and Representative Sam Rutherford, of Forsyth, on the three committees on immigration and naturalization, pensions and election of president, vice president and representatives in congress.

VETERAN CAMERAMAN RETURNS TO ATLANTA

Will F. Nelson, first staff photographer of The Constitution, known also in the theatrical world as Billy Nelson, character comedian, has returned to Atlanta, scenes of his early camera successes.

Nelson plans to organize a dramatic club here in the immediate future.

Back in 1906, Nelson gave up acting to try his more newly acquired art of photography as a member of the Constitution staff. His service in this capacity on the paper from 1906 to 1911 entitles him to the claim of being the first staff photographer on a southern newspaper.

Nelson left the paper when the lure of the stage could no longer be resisted. His plans now are to gather together six men and six women between the ages of 20 and 30 years, who are amateurs but have the desire for dramatic expression in their hearts, and form a dramatic club. Mr. Nelson plans to instruct them in the art without tuition fee and later to play before clubs and in local theaters.

Proverb Department Open Until 9 O'Clock; Ends Monday

Pictures May Be Ordered by Mail Today; Suggestions Repeated.

BY THE PROVERB CONTEST EDITOR.

Enthusiastic players of The Constitution's $2,500 proverb game haven't much more time left in which to submit their sets—but they're making the most of what remains. At midnight Monday the curtain will fall on the contest, and checks will set to work on their difficult but pleasant task.

The proverb contest department will be open and under full steam until 9 o'clock Saturday night; from 1 until 8 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and until 6 o'clock Monday. The old P. E. and Bird Alter, the talented artist who created the proverb series, will make their headquarters on the first floor of The Constitution until the final minute of the deadline. Contestants are invited to visit them there.

All back picture will be obtainable at the proverb contest department through MONDAY NIGHT. Rural and out-of-town contestants who need pictures to complete their sets, or for making extra sets, may order them by mail TODAY. Mail orders for back pictures or the book, "Proverbs of All Ages," sent today will be filled SUNDAY and delivered MONDAY in time to submit.

Twelve suggestions of great importance to proverb players are repeated here for the benefit of those who may have overlooked them:

1. The final deadline is not until midnight Monday. None of the sets or back pictures can be ordered after that time.

2. Arrange your pictures in numerical order, placing No. 1 first or on top. If available, do not erase or roll them.

3. Be sure that your set consists of the entire series of 80 pictures. Sets that have less than that number will be of course, rejected by the judges.

4. Be sure that you have written your answers on the coupons in the space provided for that purpose, and that your name and address appear beneath each picture.

5. Be sure that you haven't written more than one proverb answer on any one coupon.

6. If you are in doubt about any of them, take full advantage of the rule which permits a contestant to send in as many complete sets as he or she desires. On the extra sets extra answers can be written, which gives more than one opportunity of winning the first prize of $1,000, or any of the other 20 handsome awards.

7. Remember, the free list of 2,000 proverbs does not have all of the correct answers, as explained in the lower right-hand corner, page 3, of the circular in which the list is printed. The proverb answers not found in the free list can be supplied by recalling proverbs from memory, by consulting reference books on the subject of adages, or by using "Proverbs of All Ages," "Proverbs of All Ages" is the most widely read book of its kind in the world, and has one of the correct answers between its covers. It can be had for 50 cents a copy by calling at the office of The Constitution, or by mail.

8. Remember, it is not required that pictures be pasted in a notebook, bound, stapled, prepared in loose leaf style or embellished, although they are acceptable in the form of a book. Pictures of "Proverbs of All Ages" will be kept on hand until midnight Sunday. These pictures, printed on smooth white paper, are 5 cents apiece, when bought singly. Five cents is the price of the individual issues of The Constitution in which they appeared.

Any eight of the pictures may be had for 20 cents—or any 40 of them for $1.25. A full set (from No. 1 to No. 80) may now be had for $2.

10. Contestants may bring their sets in person to the office of The Constitution, Alabama and Forsyth streets, or they may mail them in. Sets that are mailed should be addressed the Proverb Contest Editor, The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga., and must bear a postmarked date of not later than midnight Monday, December 7.

11. The sets of pictures and answers, regardless of the manner in which they are prepared, or the kind of package or envelope used, when mailed require first-class postage which is 2 cents in stamps for every ounce or fraction of an ounce. If you are in doubt about the weight of your package or envelope and the amount of postage required, consult your postmaster. SETS THAT DO NOT HAVE SUFFICIENT POSTAGE WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

12. Make your set as neat as possible. Should two contestants submit an equal number of correct answers, and become eligible for a prize, then neatness will become a consideration. Neatness is, therefore, of importance. Should two contestants submit an equal number of correct answers, and become eligible for a prize, then neatness will become a consideration. Culbertson "Team" Reported in Shape For Crucial Test

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Ely Culbertson, who have been resting for two weeks in Virginia, are here for the American Bridge League meeting prior to their return to New York for the Culbertson-Lenz match which will start Monday. Their vacation has served to put them on a fine mental edge for the momentous struggle and they await the start of play with confidence.

The match is sure to develop into a marathon. With a limit of four sessions a week, it will take six to ten weeks to play the 150 rubbers even though each session should run four hours. This length of the contest is for the purpose of eliminating luck in so far as possible.

While Mr. Culbertson will begin play with Mrs. Culbertson as his partner he plans to use both Baron Waldemar Von Zedtwitz and Theodore A. Lightner as partners later in the contest. Mr. Lenz will play with Oswald Jacoby from start to finish, according to announced plans. The latter is a member of the Hal Sims team, which won a year tournament in which it entered.

DR. JOSEPH ROEMER HEADS COLLEGE BODY

Southern Association Selects Officers for New Year's Term.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 4.—(AP)—Dr. Joseph Roemer, of Peabody College, Nashville, today was elected president of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States. He succeeds C. A. Brown, associate superintendent of public schools at Birmingham.

Other officers elected by the association at the final session of its thirty-sixth annual convention were Dr. O. C. Carmichael, president of Alabama College for Women, Montevallo, first vice president; Miss Juliet Foytner, Shelbyville, Ky., second vice president; and Dr. Gay E. Stuevel, president of Birmingham-Southern College, secretary-treasurer.

The retiring president was the only new addition to the executive committee. The other members are H. M. Ivy, of Meridian, Miss.; R. L. Marguis, North Texas State Teachers' College, A. B. Dinwiddie, of Tulane University, New Orleans, and Harry D. Campbell, of Washington and Lee University.

Culbertson "Team" Reported in Shape For Crucial Test

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Ely Culbertson, who have been resting for two weeks in Virginia, are here for the American Bridge League meeting prior to their return to New York for the Culbertson-Lenz match which will start Monday. Their vacation has served to put them on a fine mental edge for the momentous struggle and they await the start of play with confidence.

The match is sure to develop into a marathon. With a limit of four sessions a week, it will take six to ten weeks to play the 150 rubbers even though each session should run four hours. This length of the contest is for the purpose of eliminating luck in so far as possible.

While Mr. Culbertson will begin play with Mrs. Culbertson as his partner he plans to use both Baron Waldemar Von Zedtwitz and Theodore A. Lightner as partners later in the contest. Mr. Lenz will play with Oswald Jacoby from start to finish, according to announced plans. The latter is a member of the Hal Sims team, which won a year tournament in which it entered.

BOARD TO EXAMINE RHODES ASPIRANTS

Two Will Be Selected From 14 Georgians for Final Tests.

Former Rhodes scholars who make up the Georgia Rhodes selection committee will meet in Atlanta this morning to interview and examine 14 Georgia students who are candidates for nomination to the Rhodes Scholarship. The committee will meet in the offices of Alston, Alston, Foster and Moore.

At the meeting two of the 14 will be selected to go before the regional body which will select four men to receive the award, which authorizes three years at the University of Oxford, England, for which payment of 400 pounds—approximately $2,000—is allowed each year.

Four Atlanta students among the candidates are Hamilton Loker, University of Georgia; Gordon S. Hogg, Emory University; W. V. Brown, Georgia Tech; and Richard N. Clark Jr., Harvard University.

The committee will select the candidates for the regional conference on the basis of grades received in school and the impression made upon the members during the interviews. No examinations will be given by the committee, headed by Robert C. Alston, and including E. W. Highsmith, Brunswick; Rev. James M. Richards, Thomasville; Allen W. Post, Atlanta, and E. W. Moise, secretary of the committee, Atlanta.

Other students from Georgia in the competition today are Myron S. McCay, Danielville, University of Georgia; John G. Harrison Jr., Macon, Mercer University; D. Grier Martin, Covington, Davidson College, N. C.; John Elbert Wilson, Camilla, Emory University; D. M. Braswell Jr., Tilton, Vanderbilt University; Ralph H. Ricketson, Macon, Mercer University; Roger Dulac, Buchanan, Davidson College; W. F. Hanson Jr., Smyrna, University of Georgia; Adolph Rosenburt, Albany, University of Georgia; and Van Woodward, Oxford, Emory University.

RUMORS DOMINATE WORLD FINANCES

BY DR. MAX WINKLER.

(Copyright, 1931, for The Constitution by the North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc.)

Vicious rumors once again dominate the financial situation. The prophets of woe continue their dire predictions with impunity. Furthermore, their followers are increasing at a rapid rate.

The latest news of an adverse nature, which seems to have gained credence in Wall Street circles, relates to international conditions, notably in Germany. It includes among others a report that the gold standard will be abandoned by the Reich at once; that Brüning will resign; that Hitler will be called upon to form a new cabinet; and that all debts will be repudiated.

These rumors have been current before. Some of them may be true. As to the gold standard, Germany has been off it for all practical purposes, since July.

Dr. G. R. Glenn, Famed Educator, To Observe 85th Birthday Today

A man who has devoted more than half a century to the task of educating Georgians, and whose former pupils—now white-haired—still stop at his home now and then to pay their respects to their old teacher, will quietly observe at his home here today the 85th anniversary of his birth.

He is Dr. Gustavus Richard Glenn, of 933 Juniper street, N. E., of whom a former Georgia governor said, "His work will stand a monument to his genius, his eloquence and his ability for generations to come," and today he still enjoys good health and looks on life with a philosophy uncommon of observation in those who have passed their allotted three-score and ten.

Perhaps there has never been another man in Georgia educational history whose efforts have been so devoted to the inspiring of his citizens to the need for learning as have those of Dr. Glenn. During the many years he served as state school commissioner he preached the gospel of the need for education of children—at a time when that thought was secondary at best in the minds of parents; and his efforts resulted in a changed attitude throughout Georgia, resulting in better schools and a more enlightened method of teaching.

Dr. Glenn, scholar, college professor, state commissioner and college president, was born in Jackson county, Georgia, December 5, 1846. At the age of 14 he was sent to the pioneer farm of that section and a grandmother on his mother's side of the family was a first cousin of President Zachary Taylor.

Dr. Glenn himself was raised on a farm, and with other workers, went to the field at sunrise and remained until sundown, and it is to his rigorous physical training that he today owes his longevity and good health. His father died shortly after the close of the Civil War, and young Glenn, then 17 years of age, went to live with an uncle, who recognized the boy's deep desire for learning and aided him in preparing for an education.

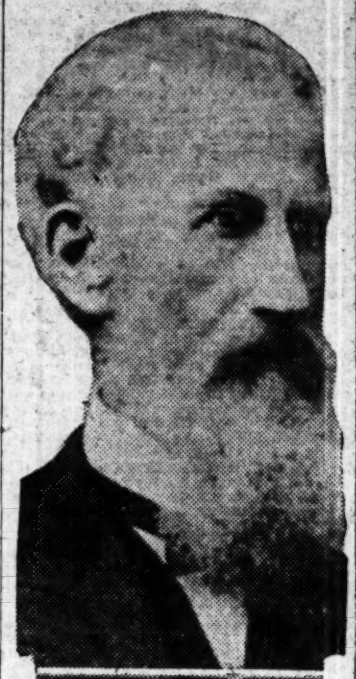

His first literary instruction came from the Rev. William Park, brother of the Rev. James L. Pierce, brother of Bishop George F. Pierce. In 1868 he entered the University of Georgia and was graduated as second honor man, with his A. B. degree in 1871. The next year he received his master's degree. In 1869 the Georgia Peabody College of Nashville, Tenn., conferred upon him the degree of doctor of laws.

Became Wesleyan Professor.

After graduation Mr. Glenn became principal of a select private school for boys at Columbus, and in 1875 was named president of the Columbus Female College, remaining in that post until 1884, when he became professor of physics at Wesleyan Female College. To this day some of his old Wesleyan students occasionally drop by to chat with their former professor, and old times on the famous campus at Macon are recalled.

In 1894 Governor William F. Atkinson appointed Mr. Glenn state school commissioner, which office he held for eight consecutive years. At the time of his appointment he was serving as managing editor of the Macon Telegraph.

In 1903 Dr. Glenn was named assistant agent of the Peabody education fund, and after the death of Dr.

DR. GUSTAVUS R. GLENN.

J. L. M. Curry, the agent, was placed in that office, in which he served until 1904, when he was appointed president of the North Georgia Agricultural College.

Headed Education Association. Many other honors have been conferred upon this great educator who is modest and retiring. He was named president of the Southern Education Association in 1900, and president of the National Department of Superintendence in 1901.

Dr. Glenn in 1875 married Miss Rosa Ellen Versille and 11 children were born to them. He retired from educational work about 10 years ago, and aside from a visit now and then from members of the alumni of his class—of which few are alive, and of which he is president—he remains at his home on Juniper street, reading and keeping up with the present-day trend of education.

Indian Educator Assails Gandhi As Tool of Reds

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 4.—(AP)—Madame Cornelia Sorabji, one of the foremost women educators of India, today pictured Mahatma Gandhi as a "tool of communism."

Here to address the faculty and students of the University of Pittsburgh on the education of women in India, Madame Sorabji said most of Gandhi's actions are merely poses, adding his name to the list of appeals for the "untouchables" is a bid for publicity.

"Gandhi is vain," she declared. "He is an enigma to all of us people. He has a most pleasing and disarming smile and a manner of speech that wins the sympathy of his audiences. He is a shrewd politician but yet there is something childish in his vanity."

"Gandhi and his group, by their opposition which is all that it amounts to, is making it difficult for us to start our movement for separate government. In his opposition he is not the leader, but an exploited personality in the hands of the soviet."

NEW TAXES SEEN IN GERMAN DECREE

BERLIN, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Additional taxes for Germany are expected under an emergency decree which the government plans to issue next Tuesday. The decree also forbids political meetings between December 20 and January 2 so that Germans may eat their holiday dinners in peace.

The decree as it stands now, subject to last-minute changes, provides for raising the rates of sales and turnover taxes and the introduction of a capital profits tax. It also plans a reduction of the low income tax limits which now are fixed at salaries of $25 a month and for the appointment of a new arbitrator.

It is expected to be signed over the week-end following approval of the cabinet.

Marriage at Age of 23 Urged for Modern Girl

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—(AP)—The modern girl should marry at the age of 23, Dr. N. Sprout Heaney told the Gynecological Travel Club.

Dr. Heaney, conducting a clinic for the touring gynecologists of the United States and Canada, declared that age to be ideal from the biological point of view, for marriage and the preparation for the responsibilities of childbirth.

"Pioneer women usually married earlier," said the attending obstetrician and gynecologist of the Presbyterian hospital yesterday. "Conditions then prepared them for child-bearing at a younger age. The stress of modern life is of different nature than that of pioneer years, and in the average case it is better, that today's bride be several years older than her grandmother was at the time of marriage."

RITCHIE SEES REVIVAL OF ECONOMIC THOUGHT

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Governor Albert C. Ritchie, of Maryland, in a radio address on "Fire Prevention and the Depression," broadcast over the Columbia system from New York today said the present economic situation has brought about "a focusing of earnest thought which has had few parallels in our history."

"Unemployment has long ceased to be an individual matter, or a group matter," he said. "It has become a national and economic question."

"When it first began to loom large many people regarded it as a temporary condition, calling only for emergency relief measures. Now we realize that something far more fundamental is involved, namely: The need for a real solution of what is unquestionably a deep economic problem."

the city. More than 1,000,000 delegates have attended 4,904 conventions here in the last 19 years in which the bureau has been active. F. J. Paxson has been president of the organization for the past 17 years.

A committee composed of Ivan Allen, G. C. Bowden and W. C. Royer was appointed to represent the bureau in the proposed merger of various civic organizations, including the Chamber of Commerce and others.

5-AND-10 LAW REPEAL URGED BY REPUBLICAN

Townsmen of Jones Flays "Fanaticism" in Home State.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—(AP)—A republican representative from Seattle—home-town of Senator Wesley Jones, Washington republican who sponsored the 5-and-10 prohibition law—today proposed its repeal.

Ralph Horr, a new member from the west coast, announced he had filed a repeal bill with the house clerk.

"In moving to repeal the Jones 5-and-10 law," Horr said, "I have two main purposes in mind. The first is against the law itself. . . . My second motive is to dissociate our state of Washington from fanatical legislation."

"I cannot feel that the author of the Jones 5-and-10 law conceived and fostered this law of his own accord. I rather believe he is a sacrifice offered by the Anti-Saloon League to their god of bigotry."

THE new Chevrolet Six comes out today! Its appearance strikes a smart new note in motor car styling. Its performance combines the greatest thrills of modern motoring. Its new features include many of the important developments in engineering and craftsmanship. It actually looks, feels, controls and performs like nothing you have ever associated with low price before.

An outstanding feature of the new Chevrolet Six is its combination of Syncro-Mesh gear-shifting with Free Wheeling. Chevrolet is the first and only low-priced car to offer these two great advancements in combination. Syncro-Mesh, as you know, is the finest type of transmission ever developed by modern engineering. With Free Wheeling, it gives the Chevrolet driver the advantages of simple, easy, quiet gear-shifting and positive control of the car under every driving condition.

The motor includes such refinements as down-draft carburetion, a counter-balanced crankshaft, and rubber insulation from the frame. Power has been increased 20%—giving a maximum speed of 65 to 70 miles per hour and a getaway from a standstill to 35 miles an hour in 6.7 seconds. Chevrolet's famous built-in smoothness and quietness have been made even smoother and quieter throughout the entire speed range. And all of these important advancements are offered in twenty different models—each styled in a new and distinctive manner in keeping with the finest Fisher traditions.

To develop such an automobile at such low prices, Chevrolet has utilized every advantage of its present position as the world's largest builder of automobiles. And Chevrolet presents this new car—proud in the knowledge that it represents the Great American Value for 1932.

MAYOR URGES CHANGE
IN REGISTRATION PLAN

Permanent List, To Eliminate
Re-registering, Advocated
by Key.

Adoption of a permanent registration list for the city of Atlanta was advocated Friday by Mayor James L. Key. Fulton county has a permanent list, while the city voters are required to re-register from time to time.

Under Mayor Key's plan, registered voters would remain on the list until removed because of non-payment of taxes, by death or through removal from the city. Under the present system employed by the city, voters who registered since October 15 will be on the 1932 list, but those who registered prior to October 15 must be re-registered in order to vote in the next general election.

CHARITY CAMPAIGN
ENTRY LIST GROWS

With the entry Thursday of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, central avenue at Hunter street, the Good Samaritan campaign gained another important unit to the many churches and charities which have already entered into the competition to share in the division of $50,000 during the next six months on the basis of one vote for each cent of expenditure or payment of account with the Atlanta business and national advertisers whose co-operation made possible the campaign.

The campaign is designed to continue for a period of six months and during that time it is expected millions of votes will be cast.

The third period of the campaign ends at 6 o'clock tonight and the officers and individuals of the more than 25 churches and organizations in the campaign are expected to cast a large number of votes to participate in the division of $130 which is to be divided for this seven-day period. A like amount will be divided each week during the duration of the campaign.

Today marks the first double-voting day of the Rogers Quality Food Stores, and all purchases made at Rogers stores today will entitle buyers to receive double the number of coupons customary with each purchase.

Instead of giving 10 votes with a 10-cent purchase, the purchaser will receive 20 votes, and these votes may be cast in favor of any church or charity entered in the campaign up to 6 o'clock tonight. The votes must be cast through the church or charity organization or direct with campaign headquarters, 137 Peachtree Arcade.

BREAKS COLLARBONE

Cleaton was treated for cuts and bruises at the hospital and released, but was brought back several hours later by his parents and was found to have a fractured collar bone. He was admitted for observation. A case of reckless driving was placed against Ellisberry. The accident occurred directly in front of the Home Park school.

"HAMMOND WRONG,"
MAYOR KEY SAYS

Mayor James L. Key, who achieved national fame from his expressions on prohibition, Friday took issue with Judge Henry C. Hammond, formerly of the superior court, who told the Mason Rotary Club that it is the duty of citizens to violate the dry law.

Mayor Key agreed heartily that a citizen has a right to work for the repeal of any law which seems to him to work harm, but the mayor does not believe that the law should be violated because people do not like it. Judge Hammond, who has made his remarks in a facetious mood, but if he was serious, he was wrong, Mayor Key said. "If one man has the right to violate one law, another man would be at once have the right to violate another law which was disagreeable to him, and this would destroy society and government," Mayor Key declared.

In a letter to Assistant Attorney General G. A. Youngquist Friday, John A. Mangert, president of the board of the armen company, who died Wednesday night at the residence, 1300 Ponce de Leon avenue, were held Friday afternoon at the residence. The Rev. T. T. Surviving are her husband; two sons, Virgil P. Warren, president of the Warren Company, and Gordon Warren, vice president; a daughter, Mrs. Troy Turner, and a sister, Mrs. John Farmer, all of Atlanta, and three brothers, John and Robert Stowers, all of Conyers, Ga.

SAVADOR IN HANDS OF MILITARY JUNTA

Casualties Light in Overthrow of Tiny Republic's Government.

SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Six soldiers who marched into this capital leading a military revolt were in charge of the Salvadoran government today and the junta was recognized throughout the republic.

President Arturo Araujo fled into Guatemala when the rebels gave him 24 hours to get out of the country. Today business was normal and there was complete order.

It was General Max H. Martinez, former vice president and secretary of war, who headed the military movement. President Araujo had remained in his place Salvadoran Lopez Rocha, the president's brother-in-law, who had been director of police.

One of those killed in the sharp fighting which took place yesterday was Dr. Francisco Espinosa, former minister of the treasury, who was struck by a bullet as he rode past the city jail in an automobile. His chauffeur was wounded.

The complete number of casualties could not be determined immediately.

SPARTANBURG, S. C., Dec. 4.—(AP)—Mary Nell Metz, 26, was charged with murder today by a coroner's jury investigating the fatal shooting of her brother, Twichell, 31.

Democracy Victorious at Tech;
Students Adopt Primary System

It took a fight to get it but democracy has scored another signal victory and the primary as a political institution has won caste on the campus of the Georgia School of Technology.

Friday's issue of the Technique, institution publication, tells the story of a struggle won by students who adopted the creed of William Jennings Bryan, "Let the people rule!"

A little history is in order. Early in the fall, the student council, in which the Anak Society had a strong representation, hand-picked the class officers for 1932. An attempt to hold an election resulted in the disappearance of a ballot box from one of the larger polling places.

There was campus and faculty effort to smooth over the revolt and a second election was ordered. This time a box disappeared and another was burned while a guard stood over it. It was just one of those things.

The night before Armistice Day the established order made some concessions. It met, in part, demands made by George A. Breffeld, a junior, and his followers who had been clamoring for wider participation in selection of officers. With an agreement that the spring election machinery would be loosened, the fall election passed off quietly.

Tuesday night, December 1, the student council accepted the following plan, offered by a committee composed of one senior from each department of the school:

"First: A primary will be held in which all students may cast a vote for whom he pleases.

"Second: These votes will be counted and the 10 men with the highest number of votes will be taken as nominees for the real elections which will, in 10 days, follow the primary.

"Third: The election of class officers will be held as in the past, except for guarded boxes and a stricter attention given to the number of times a man votes."

MORRIS GIVEN LIFE,
TO ASK NEW TRIAL

Convicted Patrolman Probably Will Base Motion on Judge's Charge.

Formal motion for a new trial in the case of W. T. Morris, convicted Thursday night of the murder on September 19 of Lieutenant J. W. Hargfield, was filed by his attorney Friday morning immediately after Judge Edgar E. Pomeroy in Fulton superior court pronounced a sentence of life imprisonment.

The motion will be heard January 23. It is understood that the motion will be based on the charge of Judge Pomeroy, who charged the jury concerning murder and the consideration of circumstantial evidence. The defense asked that the charge be on manslaughter, as Morris had in his statement to the jury said that the shooting was accidental and occurred while the two officers were struggling over a gun in a police car.

Morris Friday was concerned over the possible loss of his police pension money. The police committee of council Thursday night dropped his name from the department roster. His application for a pension was filed soon after his arrest for the slaying. He was confident Friday that a new trial will be obtained and that he will be acquitted.

ATLANTAN ATTENDS
MOTHER'S FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Hoagland, of 4110 Brookhaven drive, left Atlanta Friday for Meadville, Pa., to attend the funeral services of Mrs. Andrew Miller, 68, mother of Mrs. Hoagland, who was instantly killed Thursday near Perry, Ga., in an automobile accident.

En route to Perry Thursday night, both Mr. and Mrs. Hoagland were injured when their automobile overturned near Tifton, Ga. Mrs. Hoagland was only slightly hurt, but internal injuries to her husband may prove serious. Both, however, accompanied the body of Mrs. Miller back to Meadville.

Mrs. Miller was accompanied by her husband, a retired wholesale grocer, their son, Carl, and Mrs. Miller's half-sister, Mrs. Ezell Smiley, who was driving the car when the accident occurred. The party was en route to Florida to spend the winter. Mrs. Smiley sustained a broken arm and cuts. Miller and his son were only slightly injured.

Letter Intercepted,
Romance Blasted,
Boy's Suit Alleges

An intercepted letter and a jointly-owned rural mailbox were blamed for a blasted romance in a damage suit for $10,000 filed in DeKalb superior court against G. B. and Lethia Fyland by Farrell F. Murray.

The suit was filed by the 19-year-old youth through his father, E. C. Murray, according to P. K. Burns, his attorney. It alleges that a letter addressed to young Murray was taken by Mrs. Fyland and not given to him. The letter was from his fiancée, Annie Stevens, of Mississippi. It is alleged, and as a result of its being held he never received it and consequently did not write a reply. According to Mr. Burns, the letter was to receive a reply to her letter caused Miss Stevens to marry another.

As a result, young Murray is asking $10,000 damages. According to Mr. Burns the two families live on a mail route near Decatur in DeKalb county and use the same mail box. The case is to be heard before Judge John B. Hutcheson at the next term of court.

POLICE SEEK AUTO
WHICH HIT WOMAN

Acting on the theory that she was the victim of a hit-and-run driver, police Friday night were endeavoring to find the driver of the car believed responsible for the serious injuries to Mrs. Helen Willis, 41, of 543 West Peachtree street, who was found late Thursday afternoon near the curbing at Spring and Cain streets.

At Grady hospital it was said Mrs. Willis' condition was critical. The woman was employed at a cafe at 174 Spring street, and the proprietress of the luncheon told police Mrs. Willis had started across the street, and that was the last seen of her until a man found her lying in the gutter near the intersection of Cain.

Two other persons were injured Friday, both slightly, when a car driven by L. W. White, of 512 Woodward avenue, was struck by another machine at Courtland street and Forest avenue. Mrs. White was cut and bruised, and Mrs. Leola Lee, of 319 Woodward avenue, riding with the Whites, received slight injuries. The driver of the other car, White told police, stopped and gave him a piece of notepaper which later turned out to be illegible. Police are seeking the driver of the other car.

'Catfish' Smith and Dalrymple Named Ends On Associated Press All-America Team

WAVE FAVORED TO BEAT BACK COUGARS TODAY

Tulane Victory Means Bid to Rose Bowl; Wet Field Threatened.

By Dillon Graham.

Associated Press Sports Writer.
The Cougars of Washington State may decide today whether Tulane will represent the south in the Pasadena Rose Bowl football game against Southern California New Year's Day. The Green Wave will roll against the far west team in New Orleans in quest of its eleventh successive victory, and a win probably will bring the Rose Bowl invitation to the Southern conference champions.

Brisk weather and cloudy skies greeted the teams as they went through final short drills this afternoon. Their practice fields were wet from recent rains. Coach Babe Hollingbery's huskies have practiced twice since their arrival from Pullman, Wash.

Southern fans look for a victory for the Wave. Coach Bernie Bierman, characteristically pessimistic, has predicted a triumph for the coast team. Buck Bailey, Cougars' scout and assistant coach, coincides in this belief, but Hollingbery merely has forecast a close battle.

RAIN THREATENS.
The prospect of a wet field or rain was giving both coaches some worry. More than 20,000 spectators are expected to witness this intersectional contest.

Each team was sent through the paces at the Tulane practice stadium yesterday, and each squad was reported primed for the battle with injuries mended. Jerry Dalrymple, who has been hobbling with a bad leg, and "Red" Dawson, Tulane quarterback, out with injuries, are ready for the lineup. Injuries on Washington State have been healed by the two weeks' layoff.

The practice was more of a limbering-up exercise, the coaches taking no chances on new injuries.

This encounter in the Cougars are accorded a chance of accomplishing what no southern team has done for several years—check the flow of the Wave, tops. Dixie program which includes the final Southern conference game between Florida and Kentucky, and several post-season charity games.

VOLS FACE VIOLETS.
Tennessee, answering the call of the unemployed, tackles New York University in New York, ambitious not only to beat the Violets but to do the job better than did Georgia in early season. This is Tennessee's first intersectional contest since its defeat by Army at West Point in 1923.

Kentucky and Florida meet at Jacksonville, Fla., with the Wildcats a slight favorite, although Florida fans, remembering the 'Gators' gallant stand against U. C. L. A., have hopes of victory.

Chattanooga, Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association champion, faces Alabama, one of the strongest Southern conference teams, in Chattanooga. South Carolina entertains Centre, another S. I. A. A. entry, at Columbia, S. C., while at Durham, N. C., picked battle from Duke and North Carolina battle other choice performers from Davidson, Wake Forest and North Carolina State. These are all charity games.

Maryland had its annual game with Western Maryland at Baltimore.

Georgia leaves today for Los Angeles and its December 12 game with Southern California.

Message Indicates Bid Forthcoming.
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 4.—(AP)—The first definite information that Tulane might receive the invitation to the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day was received here today by Dr. Wilbur C. Smith, Tulane's athletic director, in a telegram from Willis O. Hunter, athletic director of Southern California, representatives of the Pacific coast in the bowl, inquiring the telephone number over which Dr. Smith could be reached between 7 and 9 p. m. Saturday.

The message was interpreted to mean that if Tulane defeated Washington State here tomorrow, the Green Wave would be invited. For several days it has been reported the Wave would be asked to play the Rose tournament football game at Pasadena New Year's Day.

Since the Northwestern defeat last Saturday it has been assumed the Green Wave would appear at Pasadena should Washington State lose to Tulane tomorrow.

Nation-Wide Poll Gives All-America Representatives to All Sections

BREAK of the DAY!
Way down yonder in New Orleans, they are dusting off their suitcases preparatory to starting for Pasadena and the Rose Bowl game with Southern California on January 1.

There remains, of course, the formality of dusting off the Washington State Cougars who are not so Cougarish this year as last. And they were not exactly poison in 1930.

The job of cat-killing will be done this afternoon. And the game will serve to make a Roman holiday for the thousands of New Orleans fans who will be on hand to enjoy it.

New Orleans has been quite frank about it. They have wanted this game for several years, and they haven't waited to be invited to say so. The players quite frankly said that they would prefer a trip to the coast to playing a charity game. There was no good reason for them to say otherwise, considering the manner in which the public has been staying away from nine out of ten charity games.

There will be a lot of the old Mardi Gras spirit in New Orleans today. And when that special starts for the coast later in the month, the coast had better sit back and take hold.

Because, if there are any boys anywhere who can stand off the coast boys in the matter of conversation, the boys from New Orleans are the ones.

There will be a trip, that New Orleans special out to the coast.

There is, of course, the slim chance that the Cougars will upset the dope. And yet the chance is so slim that it will not cast a shadow. The Cougars have been the clay pigeons of the west coast this fall. Everyone took a shot at them—and hit!

Still, it will be an interesting game. And if the Tulane eleven SHOULD lose, please attune the ear to catch the sound of splashes as the boys leap, one by one and in droves, into the chilly waters of Lake Pontchartrain.

GEORGIA CAN CREATE TROUBLE.

Georgia has a chance to create no end of trouble in Dixie-land. If the Bulldogs can upset the Southern Californians, it will mean a harder game for the Tulane eleven.

And then, if the Southern California Trojans should bottle up the Green Wave, the situation would be pretty well scrambled so far as national honors are concerned.

The Bulldogs are going out there with high hopes. They mean to try and win that football game. They should be in the best shape of the year. The game is still a week away, and injuries on the squad are expected to come round in plenty of time.

The Bulldogs are a senior eleven. They have clicked just twice during the current season. They did it against Yale and against Tech. Their other games were won without any clicking.

This "clicking" is an intangible thing. It is either there or it isn't. One can only hope for it.

TROJANS' NEW RECORD.
According to Harry Mehre and other Notre Dame men coaching in and near Atlanta, Southern California is the only football team ever to score as much as 16 points against the Notre Dame team in one quarter.

That is, of course, in modern times. Southern California did that to win and start the Irish on the downward path which ended with the defeat by Army. And so, I imagine, Harry Mehre will be trying to put in a lick or so for Rockne's memory as well as for Georgia. It will be another Notre Dame-coached team. And despite

Bulldogs Hit Trail Westward Today

Injuries Still Worry Mehre as Squad of 36 Leaves To Face Trojan Test.
By Al Smith.
ATHENS, Ga., Dec. 4.—Georgia's Bulldogs, who carry the red and black into battle against Southern California next Saturday, were poised tonight for the hop-off to Los Angeles tomorrow, after two days of light practice following a four-day rest. A workout on Sanford field at 9:30 Saturday morning will be the last practice for the Bulldogs until they reach El Paso, Texas, Monday.

"California, Here We Come," was the ditty 36 Bulldogs sang tonight as they went about the business of packing the old war bags for their jaunt across the continent. The squad leaves at 1:30 Saturday afternoon, and the boys are already beginning to worry about missing the special train.

Announcement of the squad making the trip revealed that Harry Mehre will take along three centers, six guards, six tackles, seven ends, four quarterbacks, six halfbacks, and four fullbacks. One set of these young men will run Trojan plays against the varsity.

The following men will make the trip: McWhorter, Perkins, Baichellor, centers; Bennett, Patterson, Maddox, Leathers, Wolfson, Hazlehurst, guards; Rose, Hamrick, Cooper, Townsend, Thorne and McCormick, tackles; Smith, Kelley, Miller, Maxwell, Crenshaw, Hill, Turbyville, ends; Captain Downes, Sullivan, Moran, Young, quarterbacks; Key, Chandler, Dickens, Mott, Brown, Gaston, halfbacks, and Roberts, Gilmore, White and Stineoff, full backs.

Injuries still hampered Mehre as his squad went through an hour and a half conditioning workout on Sanford field. Just before the Bulldogs special pulled out of the Southern railroad station here tomorrow, Harry and his assistants will make the rounds of the hospitals to pick up half of his squad, and take the boys down to the train.

FOUR SICK ENDS.
Dr. H. L. Reynolds, Bulldog physician, temporarily took over Chick Shiver's job as coach today. Four of the varsity ends were under the physician's care. Vernon (Catfish) Smith temporarily took over Chick Shiver's job as coach today. Four of the varsity ends were under the physician's care.

ST. PETE SHOOT.
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Dec. 4.—(AP)—United States coast guard crack shots, civilian and police teams from all sections of Florida will participate in the first annual state rifle and pistol championships to be held here February 20-21.

Jack (The Ripper) Roberts donated a paid of old pants and an old jersey to jog around the field for a short time, his injured shoulder still covered with adhesive tape. Captain Austin Dornes watched the practice, but he wasn't even in uniform. His injured ankle is still being treated by Trainer Clarence Jones.

Tiger Bennett was the only one of the alling ones who was improved today. The Tiger, possessor of a bad cold Thursday, worked out with the remainder of the squad.

One wee small break came Harry Mehre's way today. It did not rain and his squad was down on the field. But the muddy field, the result of three straight days of hard rain, lent a damp atmosphere to the workout. When it was all over the boys had acquired a liberal coating of red clay.

WOOD SELECTED AS QUARTERBACK ON STAR SQUAD

Nation-Wide Poll Gives All Sections Representatives on Team.

By Alan Gould.

Associated Press Sports Editor.
NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—(AP)—For the second successive year Notre Dame and Northwestern, the chief banner-bearers of midwestern college football, grab the lion's share of all-America laurels for the 1931 season in the seventh annual Associated Press consensus.

Not even the stunning setbacks at the hands of Southern California and Army deflected the landslide of votes for the outstanding individual stars of Notre Dame's line and backfield. As a result, the great Marchmont Schwartz reclaimed the hardest running back in America, gains all-star distinction for the second straight year, along with two teammates, Captain Tom Farr at center and Frank (Nurdy) Hoffmann at guard.

RENTNER, MARVIL. Northwestern places its ace ball-carrier, Ernest (Fug) Rentner, and Dallas Marvil, 233-pound tackle, in the All-America lineup, thereby duplicating the achievement of the Wildcats in taking two positions a year ago with Frank Baker and Red Woodworth.

The midwest collects six positions altogether on the first team as Captain Clarence Munn, of Minnesota, proved far and away the outstanding choice for guard.

Two of the remaining positions go to the south, two to the far west and one to the east, the latter accounted for by the almost unanimous selection of Captain William Barry Wood Jr., of Harvard, for the key position of quarterback.

All told, on the All-America squad of 33 players, including second and third teams, 14 places go to the big northwest area, eight to the east, five to the south, five to the far west and one to the southwest.

DIXIE TAKES ENDS.
The south's two crack ends, Captain Gerald Dalrymple, of Tulane, and Vernon (Catfish) Smith, of Georgia, ran away from all rivals in the nationwide balloting by sports editors and writers.

On the other hand, the far west's brace of honor men, Erny Pinkert, of Southern California, back, and Paul Schwartz, of the University of Washington, tackle, won their positions only after the keenest competition everywhere along the voting scale.

Pinkert, who duplicated Schwartz's achievement in gaining All-America honors for the second year in a row, won a 200-vote contest over Gene McEver, Tennessee's powerhouse, for the fourth backfield position by a margin of only four votes.

Schwartz, Tulane's triple threat, finished only eight votes behind McEver in this hot three-cornered contest.

SCHWELER RALLIES TO WIN.
Schwenger, likewise, barely rallied enough support to win his post as Marvil's running mate. The wealth of complex tactics this year proved one of the outstanding developments of The Associated Press consensus.

The contest was so close that less than 20 votes separated Schwenger from such great performers as Joe Kurth of Notre Dame, Jim MacMurdo, of Pittsburgh, Hugh Rhea of Nebraska, and Captain John Price of the Army.

Schwartz ran wild through the broken field of ballots much after the manner of the famous Notre Dame climax runner has performed against his opposition on the field. Out of a possible maximum of 270 Schwartz won 225 votes. In popularity, Dalrymple ran second among the All-Americans with 225. Rentner, Wood and Munn were the only others to pass the 200 mark.

Two captains, Johnny Orsi of Colgate and Henry Cronkite of the Kansas Aggies, ran strong enough to win second team positions on the ends, but they were far behind Dalrymple and Smith, the Dixie terrors. The latter pair combined to carry on a tradition that the south always furnishes a fine collection of winners.

BAKER STARS TOO LONG.
Munn and Hoffmann were not handicapped to capture the guard positions, although Southern California's hero of the Notre Dame game, Johnny Baker, came with a closing rush. Baker beat Hickman of Tennessee and Kabat of Wisconsin for a berth on the second lineup.

Likewise Yarr outdistanced all rivals for the center position.

Leading Southern Coaches Use Changing in Present Kick-Off

ALEX AND MEHRE SAY USE OF TEE WILL NOT HELP

McGugin Calls for Abolishment of Wedge, Blames Officials.

By The Associated Press.

Bill Alexander, of Georgia Tech, former president of the National Football Coaches' Association, does not believe that the substitution of a tee for the present football kick-off will lessen the danger in this spectacular feature of the game.

The suggestion that a mound be placed on the field, allowing a player to hold the ball in position for the kick-off was made by Tom Thorpe, football official. Thorpe said the mound would give added height and distance to the kick, enabling the defensive players to get down field quicker and giving the offensive team less time to form a flying wedge.

Alexander, the opposite view. He thinks the high kick will give the offensive team more time to shape its drive back up field. It is also Alexander's opinion that many times the kick will cross the goal and give the offensive team possession on their own 20-yard line.

LEGISLATION FAVORED.

The Georgia Tech coach is in favor of retaining the kick-off, but says that the coaches or the rules committee probably will recommend some legislation to reduce the chances of injuries and deaths resulting from it.

"The present kick-off is all right, and any change would hurt it," said Harry Mehre, of Georgia. "A change in the kick-off would not halt the injuries and deaths from football. I would rather have the kick-off abolished entirely than have it changed. Under the mound plan, the receiving team rarely would have a chance of returning the ball any distance."

Coch Bernie Bierman, of Tulane, wants the present kick-off retained. "Leave the kick-off as it is. Under the proposed mound plan, the receiving team will give the ball to the offensive team on its 20-yard line to start with," he said.

RETENTION FAVORED.

Coch "Rube" Hollingbery, of Washington State, whose team plays Tulane at New Orleans today, in one of the major games of the day, also looks with disfavor on the high tee idea and likes the present setup.

Harry Gamage, of the University of Kentucky, said the use of the mound would "too frequently result in the ball being kicked over the goal, and brought back to the kicking team, thereby eliminating the run-back thrill of the kick-off."

Wallace Wade, Duke University coach, doesn't believe the kick-off as suggested by Thorpe, "would have the tendency to reduce the number of injuries. Wade said the present kick-off was fairer because the kicking team does not have a chance to get down field so well as when the ball is teed. John "Clipper" Smith, of North Carolina State College, says the present kick-off is satisfactory to him.

McGUGIN'S VIEW.

Dan McGugin, of Vanderbilt, said he did not know whether a return to the old style kick-off would have the desired effect, but he was so imperative that something be done to eliminate the wedge. He expressed the opinion many injuries in modern football are due to the use of the formations as to increasing laxness of officials. In recent years, he said, they have been blind to roughness, which increased in extent and intensity.

ANDY MOORE, COACH OF THE CHAMPIONSHIP CHATTANOOGA UNIVERSITY TEAM OF THE SOUTHERN JACOBIAN ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION, FAVORED THE USE OF THE MOUND IN THE KICK-OFF, SAYING THE KICKING TEAM WOULD HAVE THE ADVANTAGE OF GENERALLY KICKING THE BALL OVER THE GOAL LINE.

SMITH, DALYMPLE ON STAR ELEVEN

vals for center, gaining this place for Notre Dame for the first time in the history of the game. All-American choice, Ralph Daugherty, pivot of Pittsburgh's powerful line, and Michigan's Marnard Morrison, were the second and third selections.

Outside of the position of quarterback, which went to Barry Wood by an overwhelming margin, the backfield selections were a problem. Modern football has all but discarded the old-fashioned backfield designations for a numbered system in which the carriers and blockers are interchangeable.

This was reflected by the variety of balloting. Renner, for example, was freely chosen for quarterback as well as halfback. So were such runners as Bart Viviano, of Cornell, and Gene McEver, of Tennessee.

As a result, agreement in the voting decided the occupancy of the three backs but Barry Wood's disposal for offensive purposes.

With Bill Morton, of Dartmouth, at center, the second team combination of Zimmerman, Viviano and McEver presents a degree of talent easily rivaling the No. 1 quartet.

FIVE BACKS INTERESTED.

The backfield backing, as usual, covered the widest possible range and included favorites all made strong showings. Yale's brilliant little captain, Albie Booth, failed for the third straight year to crash the main entrance but he skipped into the third team lineup, along with Carl Cranmer, Ohio State's brilliant sophomore quarterback, Weldon (Speedy) Mason, star of Southern Methodist's backfield, and Orville Howell, of Southern California.

Among the so-called "power-backs," Olson, of Northwestern; Menders, of Minnesota; Chris Warren, of Pittsburg; Ray Stecker, of the Army; Hinkle, of Bucknell, and Gill, of California, won widespread recognition.

The same thing was true of the

Alex, Robbie Witness Tide-Moccasin Game

Atlanta will be well represented at the charity football game today between University of Chattanooga and the University of Alabama, to be played in Chattanooga.

Coch W. A. Alexander, of Georgia Tech, announced yesterday that he was going to Chattanooga to see the game, and also to get a view of the Alabama team, which the Jackets are scheduled to play next year.

"I'm curious to see Alabama play and find out if there is any shrinkage in the weight of the team since the last time I saw it," Coach Alex said.

While in Chattanooga he will talk with Frank Thomas about plans for the game.

Harry Robertson, of Oglethorpe, and Nutty Campbell, his assistant, also will drive over for the game between the S. I. A. A. champs and the conference representative.

THE SPORTLIGHT

By Frank Rie

Benny Friedman's Angle on Injuries.

There is probably no one in football who knows more about the art and science of tackling and blocking than Benny Friedman, who, in addition to starring for the New York Giants, has done a good job of coaching at Yale. I asked Benny what he thought had brought so many serious injuries and fatal accidents this season, and his answer is interesting.

"I have seen a number of tacklers and ball carriers drive in with their heads down instead of keeping their heads up. I have also seen considerable attempted blocking with the head and neck instead of shoulders or body. Here are a few things for the player to remember:

"1. A tackler should never lower his head in making the tackle. Tackle with your head up. In this way you can also see what you are doing.

"2. A ball carrier should never hit a line with lowered head. Keep the head up, which is easy to do even when running low.

"3. No blocking should be attempted with head or neck. Use shoulders, hips and body.

"So many players," said Friedman, "do not know the proper way to block and tackle. Being unskilled, they leave themselves open to injury. A skilled tackler or blocker, of course, may be injured, but he is much less likely to be hurt. You will notice with all the spirit one may have, injuries have been in high school or other prep games where the lack of skill is more pronounced."

"The blocking and tackling in pro football are more effective than in any college team, and serious injuries through a 20 to 22-game schedule are rare."

A Proper Remedy.

I asked Friedman what he considered the best way to cut the casualty list.

"It is necessary," he said, "to have the players properly coached in all fundamentals. This takes time. It can't be done in a hurry. In the second place, the player himself must give his share of work and attention to the instruction given him. Football is a demanding game. It calls for condition, hard work, close attention to details, high-class instruction, and knowledge how to protect one's self in a play. And there should be an especial watchfulness over younger players in high schools and prep schools."

A Busy Winter.

In view of the 1931 casualty list, this will be the busiest winter on record among the football players. For example, in the St. Mary's Santa Clara battle four or five men suffered fractured bones. Any number of squads were too badly crippled to play. The season, even Notre Dame found its squad of 80, about the number that came on the field in the Southern California game, was reduced to 40 by the time the season was over. Koken, Melnikovich, Banas, Hoffman, Culver and others on the injured list.

At one time Yale had three players on the injured list. A strong, early season Vanderbilt team had four or five of its best men on the hospital list.

It so happens that football is one of the finest and soundest directorships in sport. There will be full cooperation by the coaches in an effort to reduce casualties, for another season of the colored gridiron in the use of football, which is too great a game not to have all possible protection.

McGUGIN'S VIEW.

Dan McGugin, of Vanderbilt, said he did not know whether a return to the old style kick-off would have the desired effect, but he was so imperative that something be done to eliminate the wedge. He expressed the opinion many injuries in modern football are due to the use of the formations as to increasing laxness of officials. In recent years, he said, they have been blind to roughness, which increased in extent and intensity.

ANDY MOORE, COACH OF THE CHAMPIONSHIP CHATTANOOGA UNIVERSITY TEAM OF THE SOUTHERN JACOBIAN ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION, FAVORED THE USE OF THE MOUND IN THE KICK-OFF, SAYING THE KICKING TEAM WOULD HAVE THE ADVANTAGE OF GENERALLY KICKING THE BALL OVER THE GOAL LINE.

Outside of the position of quarterback, which went to Barry Wood by an overwhelming margin, the backfield selections were a problem. Modern football has all but discarded the old-fashioned backfield designations for a numbered system in which the carriers and blockers are interchangeable.

This was reflected by the variety of balloting. Renner, for example, was freely chosen for quarterback as well as halfback. So were such runners as Bart Viviano, of Cornell, and Gene McEver, of Tennessee.

As a result, agreement in the voting decided the occupancy of the three backs but Barry Wood's disposal for offensive purposes.

With Bill Morton, of Dartmouth, at center, the second team combination of Zimmerman, Viviano and McEver presents a degree of talent easily rivaling the No. 1 quartet.

The backfield backing, as usual, covered the widest possible range and included favorites all made strong showings. Yale's brilliant little captain, Albie Booth, failed for the third straight year to crash the main entrance but he skipped into the third team lineup, along with Carl Cranmer, Ohio State's brilliant sophomore quarterback, Weldon (Speedy) Mason, star of Southern Methodist's backfield, and Orville Howell, of Southern California.

Among the so-called "power-backs," Olson, of Northwestern; Menders, of Minnesota; Chris Warren, of Pittsburg; Ray Stecker, of the Army; Hinkle, of Bucknell, and Gill, of California, won widespread recognition.

Atlanta will be well represented at the charity football game today between University of Chattanooga and the University of Alabama, to be played in Chattanooga.

Coch W. A. Alexander, of Georgia Tech, announced yesterday that he was going to Chattanooga to see the game, and also to get a view of the Alabama team, which the Jackets are scheduled to play next year.

"I'm curious to see Alabama play and find out if there is any shrinkage in the weight of the team since the last time I saw it," Coach Alex said.

While in Chattanooga he will talk with Frank Thomas about plans for the game.

Harry Robertson, of Oglethorpe, and Nutty Campbell, his assistant, also will drive over for the game between the S. I. A. A. champs and the conference representative.

Here is McCarthy, star halfback of the Tuskegee Tigers. He will run against the Morris Brown Wolverines today.

Chinese Woman Aids With Development Of New Anesthetic

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Development of a new general anesthetic through the purification of this anesthetic was announced today as the work of members of the staff of the University of California Medical school.

The new anesthetic is declared to be quicker, clearer, and less dangerous than other gases. Its effect is longer lasting and its use is free from objectionable pathological effects.

It is named "Chloroform" and is the work of a Chinese woman, Mrs. Mei-yu Chen, of San Francisco.

Although clinical evaluation of the new anesthetic is still proceeding at the University of California hospital, the members of the staff already have found the discovery in one of the most important of the in the opinion of Dean Langley Porter.

Although divinyl oxide, which is related chemically to the other anesthetics, can be obtained from the common garden variety of lark, it is more practicable to obtain it otherwise.

The Chinese woman, Mrs. Mei-yu Chen, is a native of China and has been in the United States for several years.

She is a member of the staff of the University of California Medical school and has been working on the development of the new anesthetic for several months.

The new anesthetic is said to be a great improvement over the old ones and is expected to be used in the near future.

The development of the new anesthetic is a significant contribution to the field of medicine and is expected to save many lives.
